Subject: Introduction and IBA-Committees Collaboration on future key events

Opening remarks were made by Chris Roberts and Marko Petric. Committees' importance on IBA's future events and shaping the modus operandi were discussed and underlined. The new IBA member Mr Burak Şahin was introduced, who will essentially be the POC for committee business from within the IBA Head Office.

Each committee member introduced themselves briefly agreeing on the importance of collaboration between committees and the governing body.

The meeting was finalised with agreeing on the committees being active and engaging with future events and actions. Collaborative working is key whilst shaping collective work towards successful tenures of each respective committee.

With no further comments, support will be provided in order to shape individual committee business.
